

House Resolution No. 117

Whereas, it is with great appreciation and genuine respect that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize the meritorious accomplishments of one of Atchison County's most dedicated public servants; and

Whereas, Dale E. Faulkner has retired from his many diverse duties and responsibilities as Atchison County Clerk after more than sixteen years of competent and admirable service; and

Whereas, Dale Faulkner proudly commenced his career in public service when he was appointed to the important position of Atchison County Clerk on March 28, 1986; and

Whereas, Dale Faulkner earned the trust and confidence of his constituents who reaffirmed their faith in him and his ability by reelecting him in November 1986 and again in 1990, 1994, and 1998; and

Whereas, extremely loyal and dedicated to those with whom and for whom he works, Dale Faulkner has distinguished himself by the meticulous manner in which he has endeavored to meet each and every challenge that has come his way during his sixteen years in office; and

Whereas, it is entirely fitting and proper for this legislative body to honor Dale Faulkner, a remarkable individual whose zealous commitment to procedure at the Atchison County Clerk's Office will always be remembered and appreciated:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to express our deep gratitude for the unparalleled service that Dale Faulkner has rendered to Atchison County and its many fine citizens, and to wish him the long, enjoyable, and rewarding retirement he so richly deserves with ample opportunity to enjoy the better things life has to offer; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Dale E. Faulkner, as a measure of our tremendous esteem for him.
